

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- a. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that full copyright and permissions have been acquired in advance of submission. Please pay particular attention to ensure that music used has been cleared for copyright.
- b. By submitting the content, applicants cede the right to reproduce extracts and images of the submitted works for the purpose of promoting them. Any request to present extracts of work outside of such contexts by a third party will be communicated to the film's rights holder.
- c. All film submissions must include appropriate credits which clearly indicate those involved in the creation of the work. Where appropriate, funding bodies and any sponsors involved should be included. English subtitles are required where language plays a central role.
- d. Submissions which are deemed to not meet the submission requirements cannot be considered.
